Job Description

At NexGen Fuelworks, we use laser technology from Tokheim to dramatically improve efficiency and reduce wastage in the fuel management sector. The retail fuel industry in Africa is still using slow and archaic quality control and calibration techniques.

Key Responsibilities:

Folding laundry

Keep an updated inventory of laundry detergents and all stock items.

Track maintenance and repairs on laundering equipment

Ensure that the facility remains clean at all times

Anticipate and respond to customers' queries, concerns and complaints

SKILLS

Proven work experience as a Laundry Attendant or similar role.

Diploma or equivalent is preferred

Computer knowledge and experience in Microsoft office applications such as excel and word is also required.

Familiarity with cleaning detergents and laundering equipment

Outstanding organizational and time management skills

Excellent analytical and problem-solving skills

Excellent communication skills

Attention to detail and accuracy.

Creative skills for contributing new and innovative ideas.
