The Kenya National Examinations Council (also referred to as KNEC or the Council) was established in under the Kenya National Examinations Council Act Cap A of the Laws of Kenya. This Act (Cap A of) was repealed in and replaced with KNEC Act No. 29 of . KNEC was established to take over the functions previously undertaken by the defunct East African Examinations Council and the Ministry of Education to conduct school, post school and other examinations. The establishment of the Council followed the breakup of the East African Community and the need for an institution to take over control of such examinations to ensure their validity and reliability; and to ensure conformity to Kenya's goals and changes in Government policy relating to the curriculum and examinations.

Kenya National Examinations Council (KNEC) is currently seeking to employ competent personnel to fill the following vacant positions:
